

Terms & Conditions Crickhowell Open Studios

27 to 29 May 2023

By registering to participate in the Crickhowell Open Studios weekend, you agree to:

- Use the relevant form to apply
- Supply images and information for inclusion in the guide and website by the deadline date of 28 February 2023
- Pay the relevant (non-refundable) fee in advance via BACS At the time of application and no later than March the 4th
Sort code 30-90-02 Account 01059689
 - a. 1/3 of a page entry at a cost of £108 [inclusive of VAT]
 - b. Full page entry at a cost of £234 [inclusive of VAT]
- Open and supervise the studio/exhibition space on the dates and times advertised.
- Ensure that directions to the studio/ exhibition space are prominently displayed
- Actively promote the event
- Each artist or group of artists will be expected to distribute at least one box of open studio guides [approx. 100 guides] in the run up to the event in the Crickhowell area and further afield
- Coordinate with other artists in the area, particularly with regards to leafleting & posting directional signage
- Conform to basic health and safety requirements in relation to access, materials and equipment.
- Arrange public liability insurance for the venue
- Return all signage which is the property of the Crickhowell Resource and Information Centre after the event
- Complete a feedback and evaluation form on the event
- Implement COVID-19 safety measures as recommended by Welsh government at the time of the event

Please note:

The open studio coordinator/steering group reserve the right to reject applications for participation. If an application is rejected, payment will be refunded.

The editor of the open studios guide reserves the right to alter/edit entries to fit the available space or to correct errors

St Edmund's church in Crickhowell has for a number of years welcomed artists as a venue. artists or groups who wish to share this venue:

- Are not charged by the church for using the church as a venue, but are expected to make a donation towards the charity that the church supports with the event and
- Have to provide proof of their own public liability insurance

Suzette Pratten

gallery@visitcrickhowell.wales